Strategic Leadership & Partnership for Independent Schools of the Future

AN EVENING FOR INDEPENDENT SCHOOL LEADERS WITH
KEN KAY

Founding President of P21 & CEO of EdLeader21

A leading voice for 21st century education for more than a decade, Ken Kay was the Founding President of the Partnership for 21st Century Skills (P21), and is the founder and CEO of EdLeader21, the national professional learning community for 21st century education leaders.

Join leadership colleagues from NAIS independent schools to consider a vision for creating 21st century learning communities, an invitation to collaborate with national education leaders, and an opportunity to explore the public purpose of our independent schools--as Ken presents on "7 Steps to Becoming a 21st Century Independent School," provides an introduction to EdLeader21, and responds to your questions and concerns about 'Schools of the Future' initiatives.
